

WE ARE PROUD TO ANNOUNCE THAT THE CENTRAL COAST TRUCK ACADEMY CLASS 1 REGISTRATION - IS NOW OPEN

Sponsored by the Santa Barbara County Fire Chief's Association and the AHC PSTC

DESCRIPTION: The CCTA provides a 40-hour hands-on training program designed to provide foundational skills and training for the success of Truck Company operations during structure fires. Four days of skill building and one full day of scenario-based training will be provided. The CCTA is designed to support teams of 4 through rotations & scenarios.

TOPICS: Residential Roof Operations - Commercial Roof Operations - Forcible Entry - Building Search & Rescue - VEIS - Self Rescue - Live Fire Ops - Lessons Learned

CCTA CADRE: Members from SBCO FD, SMR FD, OXD FD, VNC FD, and the LAFD

DATES: March 23-27

REGISTRATION: To register please email john.cecena@hancockcollege.edu (Recommend Teams of 4)

COST: $1,500 payable BY CHECK to the SBCO Fire Chiefs Association / PayPal also available

REQUIRED PPE: Daily Attire: FD Class C Uniform / PPE: Helmet, 2 sets full turnouts, Brush Jacket, 1 SCBA (2 spare bottles), Eye Pro / Recommended: Axe Belt, Drop Bag, Gear Lights

LOCATION: Allan Hancock College PSTC - 1 Hancock Drive, Lompoc, CA 93436

REGISTRATION PERIOD: JANUARY 8 - MARCH 6

Course Fee For All Attending Due by March 6